

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Contact: Ava Spece ava@dcyop.org and 202-723-1612

Event Name: DC Youth Orchestra

Location of Event: The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts,
TERRACE THEATRE, 2700 F Street, NW, Washington, DC

Date and Time: Sunday, June 8, 2008 at 6:00 p.m.

Price: Free

Description of Event:

The DC Youth Orchestra will be performing their year-end concert including the Hebrides Overture by Mendelssohn, Overture to Don Giovanni by Mozart, and Dixtour by Georges Enescu for Ten Winds (movement 1). Also included in the performance will be the first movement of Saint Saëns' Violin Concerto No. 3, with this season's concerto competition winner, Kai Kight soloing. The Youth Orchestra is celebrating the end of its first season with new conductor Maestro Jesus Manuel Berard and has experienced much success under his tutelage and that of the extraordinary faculty members at the program. Come help us celebrate this, our first year of future greatness for the Nation's Youth Orchestra.

The DC Youth Orchestra Program is an internationally and nationally recognized instrumental music education program, located in Washington DC. The program has been providing for students in the greater DC area since 1960.

The Program is designed around a 12-level curriculum, allowing for any students with any level of experience to join the program. The program also strives to keep costs affordable and provide scholarship and financial aid opportunities to allow students of all income levels to participate.

DC Youth Orchestra Program – the nation's youth orchestra!

Get with the Program!

The DC Youth Orchestra Program has recently been selected for inclusion in the Catalogue for Philanthropy, as “one of the best small nonprofits in the Greater Washington region.”

Phone Number for Public Access:

202-723-1612

